China – it's an amazing country with beautiful and developed cities and metropolitan areas. One of these cities for me is Shanghai – I'm struck by its splendor, variety, internationalization and rich culture. This city is fascinating. In this city I live, learn, and meet many interesting people. Here I have many friends from all over the world. Working in an office on the 32nd floor during my internship time, from my window I could see the entire city, about which I can justifiably say that I found myself immersed in it and I succumbed to "Shanghai's charms."

Prestigious East China University of Political Science and Law is the whole universe for me, and a special part of my life education that gave me not only knowledge from excellent teachers but also wonderful friends. The University gave me a sense of freedom, strength and confidence.
